

1 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
2 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

3 Republican National Committee, et al.,

4 Plaintiffs

5 v.

6 Francisco Aguilar, et al.,

7 Defendants

Case No. 2:24-cv-00518-CDS-MDC

Order Granting Motions for Leave and Setting Hearing

[ECF Nos. 42, 45]

9 On April 15, 2024, defendant Francisco Aguilar filed a motion to dismiss the complaint.
10 ECF No. 26. On May 3, 2024, the ACLU of Nevada requested leave to file a brief as amici curiae 11 on behalf of themselves and the Campaign Legal Center in support of Aguilar's motion to 12 dismiss. ECF No. 42. Three days later, the Democratic National Committee (DNC) also 13 requested leave to file a brief as amici curiae regarding the same. ECF No. 45.

14 To assist the court in resolving the motion to dismiss, the parties are ordered to appear 15 for a hearing on June 7, 2024, at 10:00 a.m. in LV Courtroom 6B. The court intends to hear 16 argument on (1) whether the December 4, 2023 pre-suit demand, sent 64 days prior to the 17 February 6, 2024 primary election, adequately gave Nevada the opportunity to redress the 18 alleged National Voter Registration Act violation given Section 20507(C)(2)(A)'s 90-day
19 restriction; and (2) the adequacy of plaintiffs' standing allegations. Because the proposed amicus 20 briefs provide useful context on the relevant statute and its operation and speak on an issue of 21 public interest, I GRANT the ACLU's and DNC's motions for leave to file [ECF Nos. 42, 45], 22 and I consider the briefs in resolving the issues. The amicus parties are welcome, but not 23 required, to appear for the June 7 hearing. The court will only hear argument from the plaintiffs 24 and the defendants.
